It's Wednesday, so that means "Reiki Article Day" Mondays and Wednesdays: take 5 minutes to read a Reiki article

Reiki articles for you to read on Mondays and Wednesdays. Each one will take about 5 minutes or so to read, and hopefully you will find something interesting, informative, helpful or thought-provoking, maybe even challenging.

So without further ado, here's....

Today's Article "What To Think When When Nobody Feels Anything!"

Hiya,

When you start learning Reiki, the first thing you do is to practise on a few people, probably a couple of family members or some friends. And while they can often give you interesting and useful feedback, feedback that helps to build your confidence that this Reiki “thing” really is doing something, because they can feel it and notice the effects, this doesn’t always happen: sometimes you can practise on some people who don’t seem to notice anything happening when you treat them, and this is of course quite disheartening.

You might feel a raging furnace going on on your hands as you treat them but they just shrug and say, “no, didn’t feel anything really, just a bit relaxed, or “a bit of warmth from your hands but that’s just what you’d expect from anyone”.

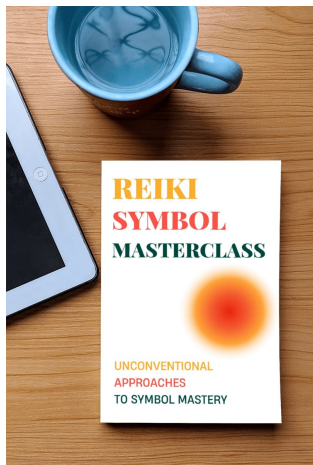

So what’s going on here? Why can’t they feel anything? Why isn’t Reiki working for them... or is it?
