

Babaji Ashram Live Streams the Daily Small Fire Ceremony on Easter Sunday Morning

Dear Friends,

We thought that some of you might like to join us for our daily small fire ceremony on Easter morning at 8am. For this reason we will live stream it on Facebook (at Ramloti Wood page) at 8:01am MT but it will also be on YouTube (Ramloti Wood channel) by 9am MT for those that do not use facebook. Although we are still separate physically, we will continue to connect through the internet knowing that our prayers are beyond time and space.

As we honor the rising light in the world, that is personified by Christ's resurrection, we will be joining together to pray for light, strength, and compassion for all on this earth.

In Truth, Simplicity, and Love,

Ramloti

PS. We still have a Gofundme campaign to help the Ashram with its expenses during this time of no visitors to the Shop or Temple. If you are able to support this, please click here. We deeply appreciate your prayers, love, shares, and support.
