Dear Friends,

Happy first day of Diwali which in many parts of India is a 5 day celebration. We will celebrate on the main day, Saturday, November 14 at 10amMT with ancestor puja, fire ceremony, and chanting. We will then reconvene at 6pmMT for aarati in the candlelit temple and chanting. Although we are still closed to visitors, we want to include as many as possible with their names and prayers to put under the candles at Mother's, Baba's, and Lord Ganesh's feet Saturday evening. You can do this by sending us an email at info@babajiashram.org or making a donation at www.babajiashram.org/donate. This short News Update (click here) will tell you all about the special programs and our upcoming events.

Jai Ma!,

The Ashram Team
