

Special Message from Rob Brezsnny

Dear Readers —

I'm pleased to announce that I am moving my newsletter to a new delivery system at Substack.com.

If you have been getting my newsletter up until now, there's nothing you need to change or do.

You will simply notice that from now on "Rob Brezsnny's Astrology Newsletter" will be arriving in your inbox from Substack.

+

--> Oh, well, there is one thing you might do:
Add freewillastrology@substack.com to your address book or contacts in your email apps.

That will ensure my weekly missives won't get derailed along the way to you.

+

I've been sending out my newsletter every week for over 20 years! Now here we go with the next 20 years!

Rowdy Blessings,

Rob Brezsnny
